

Jami Blair

In his role as Assistant Counsel, Jami focuses on bridging the gap between contract development and programmatic implementation, working closely with the Office Counsel, Director, and other Office staff to fulfill the mission of improving the quality of mandated representation under Executive Law § 832 and article 18-B of the County Law. Jami is a graduate of Albany Law School and previously worked for the NYC's Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice as the Agency Chief Contracting Officer, where he managed over 250 contracts with a budget of approximately $410 million annually.
